LOOK WELL AT THE FOLLOWING POINTS IN THESE

MACHINES.

1st. The Large Shoe and Seives,

2d The long carrier rake and the great speed with which it runs, spreading the straw thinner as it leaves the apron or grain belt, and thereby giving the grain more chance to fall through, and not be carried over in the straw.

3d. The ease with which it can be removed for storage, or left on permanently, as in other Machines, being held by swivel braces from the sill.

4th. The strong and heavy gearing in the Jack.

5th The pulleys are all covered with leather to prevent slipping and wearing of belts.

6th The covers on all the oil cups of the boxes.

7th. The cloth used in the aprons.

8th. The nine bars in the cylinder, with teeth made of the best quality of iron, made expressly for the purpose.

9th Observe the trucks, and examine the workmanship and finish of the whole machine.

COUNTY COURT OF ROCK COUNTY.

In the matter of the estate of John Doyle, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition of Thomas Thorp, the administrator of the estate of said deceased, setting forth the amount of personal estate that has come to his hands and the disposition thereof, the amount of debts outstanding against said deceased and a description of all the real estate of which said deceased died seized and the condition and value of the respective portions thereof, and praying that license may be granted to him to sell so much of the said real estate as may be necessary to pay the debts of said deceased, the costs of administration and the expenses of the funeral and last sickness of said deceased; and it appearing by said petition that there is not sufficient personal estate in the hands of said administrator to pay said debts and said costs and expenses, and that it is necessary in order to pay the same to sell part of said real estate, it is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before this court at the office of the judge thereof, in the city of Janesville, in said county, on the first Monday of February next, at ten o'clock A M, then and there to show cause why license should not be granted to said administrator to mortgage, lease or sell so much of said real estate as shall be necessary to pay said debts and expenses, and that a copy of this order shall be personally served on all persons interested in said estate residing in the said county at least fourteen days prior to said hearing, and shall be published four successive weeks prior to said day, in the Weekly Gazette and Free Press, a weekly paper published in said city. GREAT REDUCTION

IN

OF

STANDARD MACHINES

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $70.

Singer's Letter A. Machine,

Is the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes. Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with these than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

The Jessup Grain Drill!

Improved and Made by

R. J. RICHARDSON.

THE satisfaction which the Richardson Drill gave in 1862 has induced me to Make Double the Number for 1863.

The principle of the Drill is all that was at first claimed for it. The experience of 1862 enables me to make them just which is very difficult to till.

Adapted to the Peculiarities of this Soil,

More than three hundred of these drills were used in this vicinity last spring, and it is universally conceded that the Richardson Drill is in the quantity of Seed Sown per Acre, and that it is easily adjusted to any quantity desired. It is also conceded that the Richardson Drill is the

of any Drill yet introduced.

The drills of 1863 are readily changeable from double to single rank. The points are longer, sharper and heavier than those of 1862, which render them better adapted to the hard and crusty soil of early fall plowing.

Notwithstanding the

Large Advance on Material

we have concluded to offer our drills at the

as in 1862, which is as follows: 9 tooth, $70; 10 tooth, $75; 11 tooth, $80; 12 tooth, $85; 13 tooth, $90.

To those who know the Richardson Drill it is needless to say anything. Of those who do not know them, we would ask an examination, and refer to any one who has used them. Our drills are now of Harris, Guild, Angel & Tyler. The character o their work is well known. I would like everybody to examine these drills.

READY FOR EXHIBITION.

They are made at the well-known

Rock River Iron Works

To those wishing to purchase drills, I would say that I guarantee their

Working to the Entire Satisfactio

of the purchaser, or No Sale.

The Corn Planter Attachment

to the Richardson Drill will plant corn

In Hills Accurately

and any distance apart, from two to five feet, and two or three rows at once.

Mr. W. H Reed, of La Prairie, used one of the Richardson Twelve Tooth Drills to

and 100 acres of wheat. He planted three rows of corn at once, and in hills to suit his mind. Any one wishing to know about the planter please inquire of Mr. Reed.

For more particulars, and to see the drill, call at the Hardware Store of R. J. RICHARDSON.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE.

OVER THE POST OFFICE.

THERE is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY.

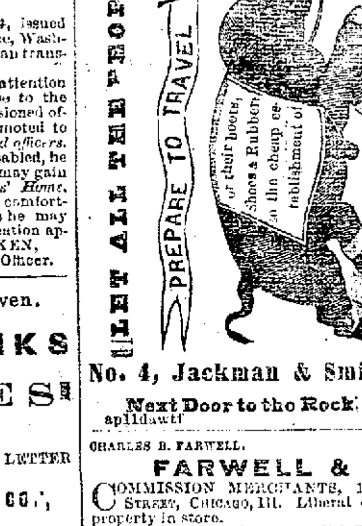

Who take pleasure in placing their Machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufacture to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantage of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a Letter Stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

INTERNAL HEAT OF THE EARTH.—The increase of temperature observed is about one degree Fahrenheit for every fifteen yards of descent. In all probability, however, the increase will be found to be in a geometrical progression as investigation is extended; in which case the present crust will be found to be much thinner than we have calculated it to be. And should this be found to be correct, the igneous theory will become a subject of more importance in a geological point of view, than we are at present disposed to consider it. Taking then, as correct, the present observed rate of increase, the temperature would be as follows: Water will boil at the depth of 8,400 yards. There is red heat at the depth of seven miles. Gold melts at 21 miles. Cast iron at 74 miles. And at the depth of 100 miles there is a temperature equal to the greatest artificial heat yet observed; a temperature capable of fusing platina, porcelain, and indeed every refractory substance we are acquainted with. These temperatures are calculated from Guyton Morvean's corrected scale of Wedgwood's pyrometer, and if we adopt them we find that the earth is fluid at the depth of 100 miles from the surface; and that even in its present state very little more than the soil on which we tread is fit for the habitation of organized beings.

SAVING THE WHEAT.—Messrs. Hooker and Nickles have about forty men busily employed in saving their grain and storing it in a vessel. Such a perfect picture of destruction as that presented by the remains of the warehouse cannot be imagined. The crash must have been terrific. Timbers that look strong enough to defy any pressure, are shattered into splinters and huge bars of iron are twisted up like thread. The weight must have been enormous to crush the building as it did. The wheat can nearly all be saved in a good condition except what has been thrown into the river. That may be saved and sold to brewers or for feeding purposes, at about one fifth its original value. What quantity has been submerged is not known yet.—Milwaukee News.

The secession' sympathizers in New Hampshire do not succeed in carrying all the democrats in support of their schemes. Thus, a few days ago, while Col. George, candidate for congress, was speaking at Hopkinton, in that state, a democrat who had always clung to the party, arose and said: "Col. George, do you support the government in putting down the rebellion?" The colonel replied: "It cannot be put down by fighting." "Then," said the democrat, "I separate from you and the party that supports you. I go for my country at all hazards, and for putting down the rebellion by the sword. I am no democrat, if opposition to my country is democracy."

A YANKEE STORY.—The Yankees I am told take the advantage of the cannibal propensities in rats. A clever Yankee being much troubled with rats, and being determined to get rid of them, tried every possible plan but without success. At last he got a lot of rats, and shut them in a cage; they devoured one another till only a single one was left. He then turned this one loose, who, excited with the blood of his brother rats and having become a genuine cannibal, killed and ate all the wild rats he could find on the premises.

Some months since, at the time the Richmond papers made mention of the confirmation of Jeff. Davis to the Episcopal church, a little girl asked her mother if Jeff. Davis would go to heaven if he died. The mother replied that she did not know anything about it. "Well, said the little girl, "there is one thing that I know." Being asked what it was, she said, "I know if Jeff. Davis goes to heaven, General Washington won't speak to him."

PUSILLANIMOUS PEACE.—"War never leaves, where it found a nation. It is never to be entered into without mature deliberation: not a deliberation lengthened out into a perplexing indecision, but a deliberation leading to a sure and fixed judgment. When so taken up, it is not to be abandoned without reasons as valid, as fully and as extensively considered. Peace may be made as unadvisedly as war. Nothing is so rash as fear; and the counsels of pusillanimity very rarely put off, whilst they are always sure to aggravate, the evils from which they would fly."—[Burke]

A Boston paper says that Martin Farquhar Tupper, author of "Proverbial Philosophy," recently wrote a prominent United States senator, entreating him to exert his influence with President Lincoln to prevent him from using the guillotines which he had imported for decapitating the rebels. The same paper expects to hear from English sources that the Vicksburg "cut-off" is a machine for cutting off rebel heads, and would not be surprised if a remonstrance against its barbarity was sent to the commander-in-chief.

AN ARM FOR A LIFE.—Mr. Greenville M. Weeks, a surgeon of the ill-fated Monitor, gives, in the Atlantic Monthly, a complete account of her "last cruise." We extract this little record of a noble piece of life-saving heroism:

"Over the waves we toiled slowly, pulling for life. The men stuffed their pea-jackets into the holes in her side, and bailed incessantly. We neared the Rhode Island; but now a new peril appeared.—Right down upon our center, borne by the might of rushing water, came the whale-boat sent to rescue others from the iron-clad. We barely floated; if she struck us with her bows full on us we must go to the bottom. One sprang, and, as she neared, with outstretched arms met and turned her course. She passed against us, and his hand, caught between the two, was crushed, and the arm, wrenched from the socket, fell a helpless weight at his side; but life remained. We were saved, and an arm was a small price to pay for life."

The name of that man should be published.

HARD ON OYSTER EATERS.—A French gentleman, M. Mouls, has just written a book on oysters, in which he informs the world that the oyster is "an acephalous molluscous bivalve." Who would have thought it?

The other day, Mrs. Rosa Jacobs, of Newark, chastised her husband unmercifully, and left his face looking like a lobster salad. He didn't like to be sub Rosa in that way, and applied to the courts for redress. To his infinite delight, his wife was fined ten dollars. To his infinite disgust, Mr. Jacobs had to pay the bill.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

The Richmond Dispatch of Feb. 20th, referring to one of Vallandigham's recent speeches, says, "This speech looks something like a lucid interval in the northern mind. Their army will be 300,000 only in June. Let us keep ours up to 500,000, and dictate peace at Warshington or Alexandria."

A gentleman lately arrived from Richmond says that Charles J. Faulkner, in the course of a conversation with him, confessed that things looked exceedingly blue for the cause of the south, which, said he, must eventually fall, unless the great powers of Europe interfere and close the war.

Humphrey Marshall has written to his old home, threatening to destroy $50,000 worth of Union property if he is not indemnified for some small confiscations against him.

STRIKE THE BALANCE.—The Alabama' Florida, &c., have captured and destroyed thirty vessels, small and large. As an offset, our fleet has captured three hundred and sixty vessels, of the value, with their cargoes, of at least eight millions of dollars.

Ballou, for many years publisher of a sensation pictorial in Boston, has sold out and retired on a fortune.

Capt. Leon Smith, to whose pluck the rebels ascribe their victory in Galveston bay, is a brother of Caleb Smith, late secretary of the interior.

A Mrs. McKay, of Lyons, N. Y., has received $4,500 from the New York Central railroad for killing her husband last summer. Many wives would like to sell out at that figure.

A soldier who was arrested for stealing a rebel's goose said he found the bird hissing at the American flag, and arrested it for treason.

The "copperhead" journals are denouncing Gen. Rosecrans for the patriotic sentiments he uttered in his recent letter to the Ohio assembly, notwithstanding he entered the army as an Ohio democrat; but we notice that they never denounce Jeff. Davis!—Washington Republican.

About 150 bales of cotton were received at this city yesterday from Nashville. The ruling rate for cotton in this market at present is from 80 to 85 cents per pound.—Louisville Journal, Feb. 28.

A worthy clergyman complained to an elderly lady of his congregation, that her daughter appeared to be wholly taken up with trifles and worldly finery, instead of fixing her mind on things above. "You are certainly mistaken, sir, said the lady; "I know that the girl appears to an observer to be taken up with worldly things; but you cannot tell the direction her mind really takes, she is a little cross-eyed."

It is believed by many well informed persons that no election of governor will be made by the people in New Hampshire, owing to the fact that three candidates are in the field, but that the legislature in June will elect a governor from the two highest candidates. The republicans are confident of electing all three of their candidates for congress, although two of the districts may be close, and the democrats are hopeful of one, if not of both of them.

A PROFITABLE NOD.—A correspondent informs the Boston Post that a gentleman happened into Col. Henshaw's auction sale of stocks a month ago, and, he supposes, accidentaly nodded his head; the consequence was the Colonel knocked down 250 shares of Vermont and Massachusetts rail road stock to him at $18,25, much to his surprise. He was about rejecting it, when a friend near, said, "take it, for it is cheap." He sold out last week at $30, making over $5,000.

Gen. Hunter has done has done his country a service. The days when military officers were permitted to denounce and obstruct with impunity the policy of the government they had sworn to support have passed away forever, at least in his department. Pro-slavery disaffection rapidly spreading among a certain class of officers under his command, finally culminated in the public declaration, by Brig. Gen. Stevenson, that he would rather the national cause should suffer a defeat than win a victory by the help of negro troops. This statement being brought to the knowledge of Gen. Hunter, he promptly issued an order requiring Gen. Stevenson to report at once in arrest, and so to remain till the pleasure of the President in his case can be made known. We judge that whatever hostility to the proclamation and to the employment of negro troops may henceforth exist among Gen. Hunter's officers, will smoulder in cautious silence instead of breaking into voice from treacherous lips. Gen. Hunter's act is the most conspicuous signal of a reform in the discipline of our service, already more extensively accomplished than is generally supposed. The remains of pro-slavery subservience to West Point traditions, of indifference to the cause of the republic, of supreme devotion to a commander at the expense of cordial loyalty to the government, have been vigorously assailed by Hooker and Rosecrans in their respective armies, and are nearly uprooted. The case of Gen. Stevenson, if rightly settled, will do much to complete the reform. It is a case in which we trust no consideration of lenity will induce the President to swerve from the just severity which the welfare of the national cause demands.—N. Y. Tribune.

CARD FROM GEN. SCOTT.—The following card from Gen. Scott appears in the New York Times:

"Gen. Scott once more begs to be excused by correspondents. Rheumatism in the hand makes it difficult to write. Hence the mass of unacknowledged letters—mostly asking for autographs—is daily increasing upon him. As it is impossible to answer one in fifty, he must, in future neglect all not on matters of importance."

The New York Times' correspondent with the army of the Potomac writes:

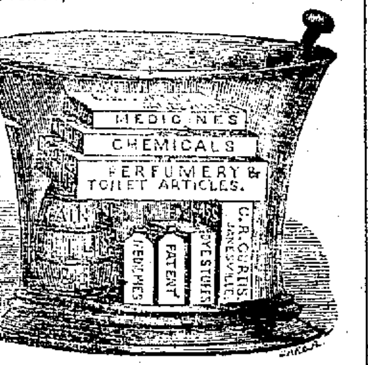

The army, to-day, notwithstanding the mud, is about as much Hookerized as it was at one time McClellanized. In a word, to a man, the army of the Potomac is ready and eager to follow their new leader whither he may lead. This is as it should be; this is as all who were acquainted with the antecedents of Hooker and the army believed it eventually would be.

The Jessup Grain Drill!

Improved and Made by

R. J. RICHARDSON.

THE satisfaction which the Richardson Drill gave in 1862 has induced me to Make Double the Number for 1863.

The principle of the Drill is all that was at first claimed for it. The experience of 1862 enables me to make them just which is very difficult to till.

Adapted to the Peculiarities of this Soil,

More than three hundred of these drills were used in this vicinity last spring, and it is universally conceded that the Richardson Drill is in the quantity of Seed Sown per Acre, and that it is easily adjusted to any quantity desired. It is also conceded that the Richardson Drill is the

PERFECTLY ACCURATE

of any Drill yet introduced.
The drills of 1863 are readily changeable from double to single rank. The points are longer, sharper and heavier than those of 1862, which render them better adapted to the hard and crusty soil of early fall plowing.
Notwithstanding the

Large Advance on Material

we have concluded to offer our drills at the

as in 1862, which is as follows: 9 tooth, $70; 10 tooth, $75; 11 tooth, $80; 12 tooth, $85; 13 tooth, $90.
To those who know the Richardson Drill it is needless to say anything. Of those who do not know them, we would ask an examination, and refer to any one who has used them. Our drills are now of Harris, Guild, Angel & Tyler. The character of their work is well known. I would like everybody to examine these drills.

READY FOR EXHIBITION.

They are made at the well-known

Rock River Iron Works

To those wishing to purchase drills, I would say that I guarantee their

Working to the Entire Satisfaction

of the purchaser, or No Sale.

The Corn Planter Attachment

to the Richardson Drill will plant corn

In Hills Accurately

and any distance apart, from two to five feet, and two or three rows at once.
Mr. W. H. Reed, of La Prairie, used one of the Richardson Twelve Tooth Drills to

Plant Over 50 Acres of Corn

and 100 acres of wheat. He planted three rows of corn at once, and in hills to suit his mind. Any one wishing to know about the planter please inquire of Mr. Reed.
For more particulars, and to see the drill, call at the Hardware Store of R. J. RICHARDSON, Main St., Janesville.

OVER THE POST OFFICE.

THERE is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY.

Who take pleasure in placing their Machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufacture to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantage of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.
Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a Letter Stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Internal Heat of the Earth.—The increase of temperature observed is about one degree Fahrenheit for every fifteen yards of descent. In all probability, however, the increase will be found to be in a geometrical progression as investigation is extended; in which case the present crust will be found to be much thinner than we have calculated it to be. And should this be found to be correct, the igneous theory will become a subject of more importance in a geological point of view, than we are at present disposed to consider it. Taking then, as correct, the present observed rate of increase, the temperature would be as follows: Water will boil at the depth of 8,400 yards. There is red heat at the depth of seven miles. Gold melts at 21 miles. Cast iron at 74 miles. And at the depth of 100 miles there is a temperature equal to the greatest artificial heat yet observed; a temperature capable of fusing platina, porcelain, and indeed every refractory substance we are acquainted with. These temperatures are calculated from Guyton Morveau's corrected scale of Wedgwood's pyrometer, and if we adopt them we find that the earth is fluid at the depth of 100 miles from the surface; and that even in its present state very little more than the soil on which we tread is fit for the habitation of organized beings.

Saving the Wheat.—Messrs. Hooker and Nickles have about forty men busily employed in saving their grain and storing it in a vessel. Such a perfect picture of destruction as that presented by the remains of the warehouse cannot be imagined. The crash must have been terrific. Timbers that look strong enough to defy any pressure, are shattered into splinters and huge bars of iron are twisted up like thread. The weight must have been enormous to crush the building as it did. The wheat can nearly all be saved in a good condition except what has been thrown into the river. That may be saved and sold to brewers or for feeding purposes, at about one fifth its original value. What quantity has been submerged is not known yet.—Milwaukee News.

The secession sympathizers in New Hampshire do not succeed in carrying all the democrats in support of their schemes. Thus, a few days ago, while Col. George, candidate for congress, was speaking at Hopkinton, in that state, a democrat who had always clung to the party, arose and said: "Col. George, do you support the government in putting down the rebellion?" The colonel replied: "It cannot be put down by fighting." "Then," said the democrat, "I separate from you and the party that supports you. I go for my country at all hazards, and for putting down the rebellion by the sword. I am no democrat, if opposition to my country is democracy."

A Yankee Story.—The Yankees I am told take the advantage of the cannibal propensities in rats. A clever Yankee being much troubled with rats, and being determined to get rid of them, tried every possible plan but without success. At last he got a lot of rats, and shut them in a cage; they devoured one another till only a single one was left. He then turned this one loose, who, excited with the blood of his brothers or rats and having become a genuine cannibal, killed and ate all the wild rats he could find on the premises.

Some months since, at the time the Richmond papers made mention of the confirmation of Jeff. Davis to the Episcopal church, a little girl asked her mother if Jeff. Davis would go to heaven if he died. The mother replied that she did not know anything about it. "Well, said the little girl, "there is one thing that I know." Being asked what it was, she said, "I know if Jeff. Davis goes to heaven, General Washington won't speak to him."

Pusillanimous Peace.—"War never leaves, where it found a nation. It is never to be entered into without mature deliberation: not a deliberation lengthened out into a perplexing indecision, but a deliberation leading to a sure and fixed judgment. When so taken up, it is not to be abandoned without reasons as valid, as fully and as extensively considered. Peace may be made as unadvisedly as war. Nothing is so rash as fear; and the counsels of pusillanimity very rarely put off, whilst they are always sure to aggravate, the evils from which they would fly."—[Burke.]

A Boston paper says that Martin Farquhar Tupper, author of "Proverbial Philosophy," recently wrote a prominent United States senator, entreating him to exert his influence with President Lincoln to prevent him from using the guillotines which he had imported for decapitating the rebels. The same paper expects to hear from English sources that the "Vicksburg cut-off" is a machine for cutting off rebel heads, and would not be surprised if a remonstrance against its barbarity was sent to the commander-in-chief.

An Arm for a Life.—Mr. Greenville M. Weeks, a surgeon of the ill-fated Monitor, gives, in the Atlantic Monthly, a complete account of her "last cruise." We extract this little record of a noble piece of life-saving heroism:

"Over the waves we toiled slowly, pulling for life. The men stuffed their pea-jackets into the holes in her side, and bailed incessantly. We neared the Rhode Island; but now a new peril appeared.—Right down upon our center, borne by the might of rushing water, came the whale-boat sent to rescue others from the iron-clad. We barely floated; if she struck us with her bows full on us we must go to the bottom. One sprang, and, as she neared, with outstretched arms met and turned her course. She passed against us, and his hand, caught between the two, was crushed, and the arm, wrenched from the socket, fell a helpless weight at his side; but life remained. We were saved, and an arm was a small price to pay for life."

The name of that man should be published.

Hard on Oyster Eaters.—A French gentleman, M. Mouls, has just written a book on oysters, in which he informs the world that the oyster is "an acephalous molluscous bivalve." Who would have thought it?

The other day, Mrs. Rosa Jacobs, of Newark, chastised her husband unmercifully, and left his face looking like a lobster salad. He didn't like to be sub Rosa in that way, and applied to the courts for redress. To his infinite delight, his wife was fined ten dollars. To his infinite disgust, Mr. Jacobs had to pay the bill.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

The Richmond Dispatch of Feb. 20th, referring to one of Vallandigham's recent speeches, says, "This speech looks something like a lucid interval in the northern mind. Their army will be 300,000 only in June. Let us keep ours up to 500,000, and dictate peace at Washington or Alexandria."

A gentleman lately arrived from Richmond says that Charles J. Faulkner, in the course of a conversation with him, confessed that things looked exceedingly blue for the cause of the south, which, said he, must eventually fall, unless the great powers of Europe interfere and close the war.

Humphrey Marshall has written to his old home, threatening to destroy $50,000 worth of Union property if he is not indemnified for some small confiscations against him.

Strike the Balance.—The Alabama, Florida, &c., have captured and destroyed thirty vessels, small and large. As an offset, our fleet has captured three hundred and sixty vessels, of the value, with their cargoes, of at least eight millions of dollars.

Ballou, for many years publisher of a sensation pictorial in Boston, has sold out and retired on a fortune.

Capt. Leon Smith, to whose pluck the rebels ascribe their victory in Galveston bay, is a brother of Caleb Smith, late secretary of the interior.

A Mrs. McKay, of Lyons, N. Y., has received $4,500 from the New York Central railroad for killing her husband last summer. Many wives would like to sell out at that figure.

A soldier who was arrested for stealing a rebel's goose said he found the bird hissing at the American flag, and arrested it for treason.

The "copperhead" journals are denouncing Gen. Rosecrans for the patriotic sentiments he uttered in his recent letter to the Ohio assembly, notwithstanding he entered the army as an Ohio democrat; but we notice that they never denounce Jeff. Davis!—Washington Republican.

About 150 bales of cotton were received at this city yesterday from Nashville. The ruling rate for cotton in this market at present is from 80 to 85 cents per pound.—Louisville Journal, Feb. 28.

A worthy clergyman complained to an elderly lady of his congregation, that her daughter appeared to be wholly taken up with trifles and worldly finery, instead of fixing her mind on things above. "You are certainly mistaken, sir, said the lady; "I know that the girl appears to an observer to be taken up with worldly things; but you cannot tell the direction her mind really takes, she is a little cross-eyed."

It is believed by many well informed persons that no election of governor will be made by the people in New Hampshire, owing to the fact that three candidates are in the field, but that the legislature in June will elect a governor from the two highest candidates. The republicans are confident of electing all three of their candidates for congress, although two of the districts may be close, and the democrats are hopeful of one, if not of both of them.

A Profitable Nod.—A correspondent informs the Boston Post that a gentleman happened into Col. Henshaw's auction sale of stocks a month ago, and, he supposes, accidentaly nodded his head; the consequence was the Colonel knocked down 250 shares of Vermont and Massachusetts rail road stock to him at $18,25, much to his surprise. He was about rejecting it, when a friend near, said, "take it, for it is cheap." He sold out last week at $30, making over $5,000.

Gen. Hunter has done has done his country a service. The days when military officers were permitted to denounce and obstruct with impunity the policy of the government they had sworn to support have passed away forever, at least in his department. Pro-slavery disaffection rapidly spreading among a certain class of officers under his command, finally culminated in the public declaration, by Brig. Gen. Stevenson, that he would rather the national cause should suffer a defeat than win a victory by the help of negro troops. This statement being brought to the knowledge of Gen. Hunter, he promptly issued an order requiring Gen. Stevenson to report at once in arrest, and so to remain till the pleasure of the President in his case can be made known. We judge that whatever hostility to the proclamation and to the employment of negro troops may henceforth exist among Gen. Hunter's officers, will smoulder in cautious silence instead of breaking into voice from treacherous lips. Gen. Hunter's act is the most conspicuous signal of a reform in the discipline of our service, already more extensively accomplished than is generally supposed. The remains of pro-slavery subservience to West Point traditions, of indifference to the cause of the republic, of supreme devotion to a commander at the expense of cordial loyalty to the government, have been vigorously assailed by Hooker and Rosecrans in their respective armies, and are nearly uprooted. The case of Gen. Stevenson, if rightly settled, will do much to complete the reform. It is a case in which we trust no consideration of lenity will induce the President to swerve from the just severity which the welfare of the national cause demands.—N. Y. Tribune.

Card from Gen. Scott.—The following card from Gen. Scott appears in the New York Times:

"Gen. Scott once more begs to be excused by correspondents. Rheumatism in the hand makes it difficult to write. Hence the mass of unacknowledged letters—mostly asking for autographs—is daily increasing upon him. As it is impossible to answer one in fifty, he must, in future neglect all not on matters of importance."

☞ The New York Times' correspondent with the army of the Potomac writes:

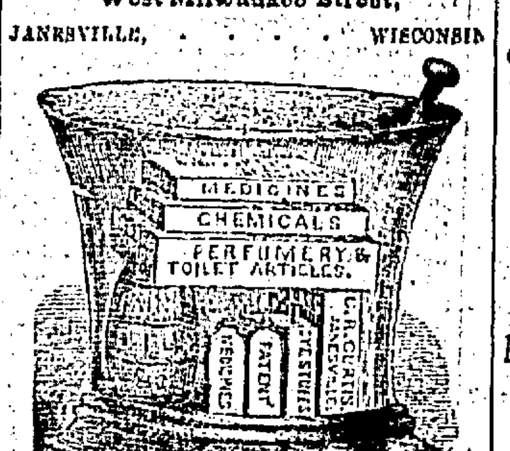

The army, to-day, notwithstanding the mud, is about as much Hookerized as it was at one time McClellanized. In a word, to a man, the army of the Potomac is ready and eager to follow their new leader whither he may lead. This is as it should be; this is as all who were acquainted with the antecedents of Hooker and the army believed it eventually would be.

The Vicksburg Rumor.

The government at Washington has no account of a general engagement at Vicksburg, and the rumors of a bloody battle and repulse are doubtless untrue.

The Emancipation Proclamation.

It is frequently said that the President's proclamation is a failure—that it has done more harm than good. This, we believe, is a great mistake. It was not until the President had fully committed the government to the policy of emancipation that the people of England took position in our favor. We now hear of immense public meetings in that country, all taking enthusiastic ground for the north. In the speeches and resolutions at these gatherings of working men, frequent allusion is made to the proclamation, and this appears to be the key note of these popular demonstrations. With such unmistakeable evidences of public opinion, the government of that country will not dare to recognize the rebel confederacy, whose corner stone is slavery. The proclamation has prevented intervention on the part of England, and we are not without hope of its influence in our favor on the continent, when the people shall understand it.

It was predicted that the proclamation would incite the slaves to insurrection and indiscriminate massacre. Two months have now elapsed and no such result has followed. The slaves are patient, biding their time, waiting, as they say, "for Masser Lincoln." In regard to faith and patience these poor slaves set an example far above their masters.

The enemies of emancipation also asserted that the southern people would become exasperated if the proclamation should be issued, but we have the testimony of every day's report that the rebels are no more determined now than before, and the Nashville Union denies positively that any southern Union men have become rebels in consequence of it. "Show us," says the Union, "one Union man who has faltered in his loyalty in consequence of the emancipation proclamation. We have heard a good deal of such stuff, and demand the proof. It is not true; not one word of it. On the contrary, it is an atrocious calumny against a body of men who are not so depraved as to prefer property to country. The very warmest advocates of the emancipation proclamation are large slave-owners of this state and Alabama; and the most radical letter we have yet seen on this subject, we received a short time ago, from a large slaveholder of Kentucky."

The emancipation proclamation is working in Europe; among the slaves; and in the hearts of the people of this country, north and south. It will bear fruit, and that very soon, for the regeneration of our country and the promotion of an enduring peace.

COPPER-BOTTOMS.—The gallant Gen. Kimball, of Indiana, dubs the "peace democracy' with the name of "Copper bottoms." His idea doubtless is that they must have some protection to enable them to endure with such abjectness the kicks so liberally bestowed upon them by their southern masters.

SOMETHING THAT WILL STICK.—The order of General Rosecrans, forbidding the circulation of the Chicago Times and Cincinnati Enquirer in the army under his command, is a plaster that will stick.—There is no pliable General Grant to overrule him.

FAIR HIT.—A sensible man writes: "The newspapers quote regularly the price of gold in Wall street, and give accounts of the fluctuations in the gold market. Why do they not also quote the price of second-hand clothing in Chatham street? The two trades are in the same hands, and I cant see why your journalists make much of one and say nothing of the other."

NEW ARMY DISEASE.—Mrs. Worcester, wife of Hon. S. T. Worcester, of the Huron district, a lady whose active charities in the Washington hospitals have conferred many blessings on Ohio soldiers, writes to a friend in Toledo that "a new disease has lately been brought up from the Potomac army. It is called dry gangrene. The feet seem to decay, and if not taken quite early, death ensues. It is supposed the disease comes from keeping the boots on week after week, as the soldiers are very apt to do, when they have only shelter tents and no fires.—Cleveland Herald.

Col. Eliet, commander of the gunboat Queen of the West, is but 19 years of age.

Tom Thumb and his wife are at their home in Bridgeport, Ct.

THE FEDERAL AND CONFEDERATE ARMIES CONTRASTED.—In the army of the North there is no doubt a formidable element of mere mercenaries, chiefly Germans and Irish. But the bulk of that army consists of American citizens, who, when the war is over, will return to the industrial pursuits from which they have been reluctantly taken. There is nothing to prevent even the Germans and Irish from taking to the labor, which was, of course, their original destination as emigrants—labor being in the North the ordinary state of man, and universally held in honor. The North is so wealthy that, in spite of the vast drain of the war, its government will not want the means of paying the troops their arrears, and getting them disbanded. In case of need the citizen soldiers are numerous enough to keep the rest under control. And there is no military chief of any mark on that side who can be suspected of the slightest tendency to become a buccaneer. In the South, on the contrary, directly the war is over, a most formidable question will arise between the wealthy planters and the army which has fought and won for their interests, and which we may be pretty sure is not so much animated by disinterested patriotism as to lay down its arms without reward. A great mass of these men will not only have no industrial pursuits, but no settled homes to which they can return. They will be such an army of "free companions," ready armed and disciplined for marauding on the grand scale as the world never beheld. The South, poor and indebted at the best of times, will scarcely be able to furnish their arrears of pay. And we know what a great army of mercenaries is when arrears of its pay are withheld. The planting community will at once have to find employment for the demon giant which it has evoked; and that employment will be some buccaneering enterprise against the neighboring territories. The last hope of forbearance which we might have had as the customers of the South will be destroyed by the breaking up of the cotton trade, especially if we should have made arrangements permanently to receive our cotton from other producers. Finally, unless I am much deceived as to Beauregard's character, he is just the man to lead any raid that might promise him wealth and fame.—Letter in London Daily News.

The contrast between the Northern and Southern armies would have appeared still greater to the writer of the above, if he had known that there are few or no foreign mercenaries in our Union army. Our German and Irish citizens who have volunteered to fight for their adopted country have done so from as patriotic motives as any others. Making this correction, the view put forth by the writer, of the probable condition of the South, if it shall have achieved its independence, is strikingly correct. What would Jeff. Davis do with his horde of poor white soldiers who have no homes or property to attract them to peaceful pursuits, if peace should be declared to-morrow on the basis of independence? Indeed, the question is not very different, so far as we are concerned, if we "crush the rebellion." These imbruted, ignorant, desperate brigands, who compose the rebel army, and have "tasted blood," would then be on our hands. What shall we do with them? We see no other alternative than that our armies must remain in the South in sufficient force to keep the peace, while free schools, a free press and a free church shall civilize them. How this is to be done under a continuance of state governments in the rebellious districts is not easily foreseen. On account of the difficulties of this nature we have been in favor of declaring the so called seceded states territories, and governing them as such, until order can be restored. In no other way can the power of the nation be used to the desired end so well as through territorial governments, supported by the military power, and to this policy we must come at last.

Legislative Summary.

TUESDAY, March 3.

SENATE.—The senate met at 7½ o'clock last evening, but adjourned without transacting any business.

This morning the joint resolution to amend section 21, of article IV of the constitution, so as to change the pay of members of the legislature to an annual salary of $300 and mileage, was referred to a select committee consisting of Senators Pratt, Hamilton and Vilas, Senator Pratt having moved the reference, and saying that he wished so to amend the resolution as to exclude any appropriations for postage stamps and newspapers. Senator Hicks introduced a bill to prescribe and limit the fees of registers of deeds in certain cases. Senator Kelsey introduced a bill rescinding the printing contract of Carpenter & Hyer, and providing for procuring the public printing temporarily, till the commissioners should have sufficient time for advertising the re-letting of the contract. The most important bill introduced was one by Senator Wilson, providing for an amendment to the state constitution, incorporating into that instrument, the provisions of the existing homestead laws, to take effect retrospectively, and providing that after the 1st of January, 1864, a homestead used for agricultural purposes shall be exempt to the amount of 160 acres; the whole amendment to go into effect only after having passed this and the next succeeding legislature, and having received a majority vote of the people.

The Assembly resolution providing for an amendment to the constitution, providing for biennial sessions of the legislature, was referred to a select committee.

ASSEMBLY.—The House met last evening, but owing to the non-arrival of the eastern train, there was no quorum present.

This morning, the speaker announced that the state printers declined doing any more work under their contract, and therefore the journal of yesterday was not printed. Petitions to repeal the dog law and prohibit negroes from entering the state were presented. Mr. Sharpstein presented the old claim of Carpenter & Hyer, which was referred to a select committee, consisting of Sharpstein, Y. Ashley, and Davis.

Resolutions were adopted recommending the promotion of Col. Starkweather, of the 1st Wisconsin, to a brigadier generalship; to meet hereafter at 9½ A. M., except that on Saturday, the House will meet at 8½ and adjourn over till 7 P. M., of the following Monday; and to receive no new business after the 21st, and to adjourn sine die on the 30th ult. A number of bills mostly of a local character, were introduced.

Mr. Vivian, from the committee on state affairs, reported adversely to Mr. Hyer's memorial, which asserted that the present revenue laws tax the west unjustly, and for the benefit of eastern manufacturers; also against ceding Douglas county to Minnesota, taking the ground that it would be much more appropriate to ask Minnesota and Michigan to cede to us the portions of their territory bordering on Lake Superior.—Deuster, of the Sec Bote, promised to bring in a minority report in favor of Hyer's memorial.

The resolutions of the Illinois Legislature to send state delegates to confer with the government of Canada and Great Britain, regard to facilitating the shipping of western products by the St. Lawrence river to the ocean, were received from the governor and read.

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 2.

The house passed the senate bill to indemnify the President for the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

The senate was occupied mostly on bills of no public interest.

The President to-day approved of the conscription bill as it passed the senate.

Gen. Burnside arrived in town to-day, and visited the President at the capitol.

Mr. Boutwell, commissioner of internal revenue, having been elected to the next congress from Massachusetts, will resign his present position on the 4th of March, the legal existence of the thirty-eighth congress commencing on that day, but will continue to perform the duties until his successor is appointed, which will not be done at present.

The first Presidential opening levee took place to-night at the executive mansion. There was an immense crowd long before the doors were opened, and hundreds were compelled to stand in the carriage-way, between long files of soldiers, who, singular to say, supplanted the police, and preserved order with the bayonet. Among the procession of carriages were several ambulances filled with officers from camps at a distance, which gave the scene a mournful aspect at times. Those who got inside shook hands with the President, and then retired, after being presented to Mrs. Lincoln. There was a very small sprinkling of the fashionable element present.

It is announced here that the Secretary of the treasury has decided to issue no more twenty-five or fifty cent postal currency bills, in consequence of numerous counterfeits.

The following call for a ship canal convention at Chicago, in June next, has been signed by nearly ninety senators and representatives:

"Regarding the enlargement of the canals between the valley of the Mississippi and the Atlantic of great national, commercial and military importance, and as tending to promote the development, prosperity and unity of our whole country, we invite a meeting of all those interested in the subject, in Chicago, on the first Monday in June next.

"We especially ask the co-operation and aid of the boards of trade, chambers of commerce, agricultural societies, and business associations of the country."

The appropriation for the military academy, the invalid pension, consul and diplomatic, post office, army deficiency and fortification bills which have been passed by congress and approved by the President amount to $868,237,122.68. The naval legislative bills passed, but not yet approved, amount to about eight millions. The civil or miscellaneous bill is still pending.

The tax law is amended by the senate so as to impose two per cent. on water crafts hereafter to be built. None on ready-made clothing, but three per cent. on custom work. The collecting compensation is cut down from ten to five thousand dollars, exclusive of expenses.

DES MOINES, March 2.

United States Marshal Hoxie and his deputies to-day commenced a systematized arrest of deserters from the army through out all parts of the state.

NEW YORK, March 2.

Mayor Opdyke to-day vetoed the resolutions of the common council to give Fitz John Porter a public reception.

WASHINGTON, March 2.

HOUSE.—The House passed the Senate bill granting lands to Wisconsin and Michigan for military purposes.

The House passed the Senate bill authorizing the paymaster general to take immediate measures for the payment of the sick and wounded in the convalescent camps and hospitals within sixty days.

The Senate bill to organize a signal corps, after amendments, was passed.

Mr. Porter, from the committee of conference, made a report on the disagreeing votes on the bill amendatory of the act establishing the court of claims, which was adopted. The bill, as now amended and passed, provides for two additional judges, and retains the present jurisdiction of the court.

The House passed the Senate bill disapproving certain acts of the Nevada territorial legislature, touching the rights of foreign mining corporations within the territory.

EVENING SESSION.—Mr. Dawes, from the committee on elections, reported a bill authorizing the acting governors of Tennessee and Louisiana to issue writs of election for representatives in congress, according to the laws of those states.

The bill authorizing the appointment of an assistant treasurer of the United States passed.

The Senate bill to establish the gague of the Pacific railroad and its branches at four feet eight and a half inches passed.

The house passed the following senate bills: One providing that the supreme court of the United States shall hereafter consist of one chief justice, and nine associate justices, one of whom shall hold court in the new circuit of California and Oregon; one granting alternate sections of land to Kansas, for railroad and telegraph purposes; one granting the right of preemption to settlers on the Soscal Ranche, California; one giving to soldiers discharged in consequence of wounds or sickness the same bounty as if they had served two years; one providing for the removal of certain bands of Sioux Indians from Kansas; one merging the two branches of army engineers; one to facilitate the taking of testimony to be used in foreign countres for legal purposes.

The house passed the senate joint resolution of thanks to General Rosecrans and his officers and men,

Mr. Sheffield reported a bill from the committee on commerce in relation to the revenue, and to punish frauds. Passed.

Mr. Sedgwick reported, from the naval committee, the senate bill authorizing the President to issue letters of marque and reprisal. Passed.

The senate resolution authorizing the committee on the conduct of the war to continue in session thirty days after the adjournment of congress, to complete their examination of important witnesses, was adopted.

The bill locating a branch mint at Carson city, Nevada, was passed.

Mr. Morrill, of Vermont, from the committee on ways and means, reported a bill, which passed, in relation to the revenue, and reducing the duty on paper from 35 to 20 per cent.

At 11:45 the house adjourned.

CINCINNATI, March 2.

Gen. Lytle arrived here to-day from Murfreesboro, and reports heavy rains and mud knee-deep. No movement can be made at present.

The enemy are fortified at Tullahoma and Decherd. There is no doubt that they have been heavily reinforced.

The Buell court of inquiry still continues, and may not adjourn for a month yet. Gens. Crittenden, Lytle and many others are yet to be examined.

NEW YORK, March 2.

A Murfreesboro letter says: "General Rosecrans has issued an order prohibiting the Cincinnati Enquirer and the Chicago Times from circulating in the army of the Cumberland."

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 3.

There still are rumors of the invasion by rebels from Tennessee, but there is no dependence to be placed in them. It is impossible for infantry to advance at present. The mud is so deep that they could not make a mile a day. Rebel cavalry dashes may be practicable, but even these are not likely to trouble us much, so long as the roads are in the present condition.

Many of the sick and wounded in the hospitals are recovering and returning to their regiments.

The hospitals are still well filled.

There is nothing new to day from Nashville or Murfreesboro. All accounts agree that the success of the federal expedition on the Bradyville road was a brilliant affair.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, March 3.

A ridiculous report is current here that our forces at Vicksburg have been defeated with a loss of 20,000, of whom 7,000 were drowned. No credence is given to this report.

FORT MONROE, March 2.

The Petersburg Republican of the 1st says a great battle has been fought at Vicksburg with great losses on both sides, without any decided success.

NASHVILLE, March 3.

The rebels under Van Dorn advanced towards, Franklin, yesterday, 2,000 strong with artillery. After maneuvering a while, hoping to draw our men into ambsh, they returned. We captured two of Van Dorn's command. Van Dorn's headquarters are at Spring Hill, 13 miles south of Franklin. No fears are entertained for the safety of the place. The federal forces, by order of General Mitchell, captured Felix Young and Wm. B. Scrogge, two notorious guerrillas, who have murdered many Union soldiers in Sumter county. They, with two others, have been ordered to close confinement and heavily ironed. Seven prisoners arrived from the front last night.

Washington specials.—The President has received dispatches announcing the capture of Fort McAllister, at the mouth of the Ogeechie river, near Savannah, by our iron clads.

Provision for the organization of African troops was stricken from the engineer bill before it passed the Senate.

Important developments, says the Herald's dispatch, in regard to frauds in the interior department are promised soon after the adjournment of congress.

NEW YORK, March 4.

A Hilton Head letter of the 27th of February says: Troops are under orders to embark, and the next steamer will probably bring intelligence of an attack on Charleston. Gen. Stevenson has been restored to his command.

WASHINGTON, March 3.

A report current here last week of a severe engagement and repulse at Vicksburg, it is ascertained, has been revived in distant cities. Government is not even aware that there has been a general engagement in that quarter.

HOUSE.—The house has passed a bill authorizing the secretary of the treasury to appoint special agents to collect abandoned property in insurrectionary states and sell it at auction. The house also passed the senate's bill regulating prize cases.

Mr. Pendleton offered a resolution tendering the thanks of the house to speaker Grow, adopted unanimously.

Mr. White moved a suspension of the rules in order to consider the bill to aid Missouri in the abolishment of slavery, the roll call is just completed, but the result was not announced, when Mr. Kerrigan rose and made some remarks, with violent gesticulations.

Mr. Colfax, speaker protem, endeavored to stop him and finally ordered the sergeant at arms to take him into custody.

Mr. Kerrigan again essayed to speak, quiet was partially restored and the result of the vote announced—62 against 57, not two thirds, and the rules were not suspended.

Mr. Stevens introduced a resolution providing that pay and mileage due to the present members of this house be paid to their successors.

The miscellaneous appropriation bill was returned from the senate with amendments.

Mr. Stevens moved the house non-concur, and asked for a committee of conference.

The house took a recess until 3 o'clock to afford the committee time to act upon them.

In the senate, Mr. Trumbull moved to postpone the Colorado bill and take up the bill providing for the election of representatives from Tennessee and Louisana. Rejected.

Mr. Fessenden, from the finance committee, reported back the miscellaneous appropriation bill which was taken up. Several amendments of the finance committee were adopted. The committee moved to strike out the provision for the third milage which was lost. A great variety of amendments were acted upon, and at one o'clock the bill passed.

The senate resumed the consideration of the Colorado bill, which was passed.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, March 4.

The Herald's money article says it is believed the effect of the tax on the dealings in gold, and the policy of the secretary of the treasury will, for the present, tend to check speculation, and drive speculators to a less expansive field. Both houses passed the amendment to the tax bill, rendering absolutely void all loans over par on gold.

The following dispatch appears in the Springfield (Mass.) Republican, of the 3d:

Beaufort, S. C., Feb. 22d.—We are daily expecting to march, I suspect, towards Savannah, and that way to Charleston, as we are at present trying to drive the rebels from their earthworks with gunboats. Yesterday the 47th New York, with the assistance of the gunboats, took Fort McAllister and about one and a half miles of rifle-pits—47 lost, 115 wounded.

WASHINGTON, March 4.

In the senate, at two o'clock this morning, the bill to admit Nebraska was taken up; at 2:30 went into executive session; at 3:15 took a recess till 10.

Mr. Wilson reported back the bill to construct a canal from the Mississippi to Lake Michigan.

Mr. Trumbull moved to take up the bill providing for the election of congressmen in Tennessee.

Mr. Carlisle called for the yeas and nays. Agreed to, 28 to 7.

Mr. Fessenden, from the committee on conference on the miscellaneous appropriation bill reported. The report was concurred in, and the bill passed.

Mr. Davis moved the postponement of the bill providing for an election of congressmen in Tennessee and Louisiana. He said he meant to defeat the bill by every means in his power.

HOUSE.—Mr. Washburne moved to suspend the rules, for the consideration of the bills for the admission of Nevada and Colorado as states. Negatived—66 yeas and 77 nays, and the motion was lost.

The report of the conference committee on the miscellaneous appropriation bill was adopted.

The house, by a vote of 97 against 45, concurred in the report of the conference committee on the disagreeing vote of the two houses on the bill to indemnify the President and others for the suspending of the writ of habeas corpus.

A Lady from North Carolina Arrives at Rockford, Ill.

From the Rockford Register.

A most respectable and intelligent lady from the interior of North Carolina spent a day in our city last week, under the following circumstances:

Her husband, a Union man, left his home at the begining of the war, and went to Minnesota. She last heard from him at Winona. Having an only child three years old, and not wishing longer to remain in the southern confederacy, the wife, in company with an aged family also wishing to come North, started on the first Monday in January. They traveled in a lumber wagon, drawn by rickety old horses, from Jamestown to Raleigh and from Raleigh to Richmond.

At Richmond they were arrested and detained seven days. They were examined with the greatest rigor, and deprived of everything valuable upon their persons or in their wardrobe. The lady in question was not only robbed of her money by southern officers, under the orders of Jeff. Davis, but of her watch, a precious keepsake, of several pieces of silver plate, inherited from a deceased mother, and of her most valuable dresses. These confederate robbers also took from her the likenesses of her husband and friends, and even letters from a southern Masonic Lodge, identifying her as the wife of a Mason.

When they had extorted all the plunder they could, the rebel authorities allowed the forlorn party to proceed to the Rappahannock, where they crossed within our lines. At Aquia Creek they parted with their team and took the boat for Washington, whence they proceeded westward.—Fortunately they had been able to conceal a little gold and silver in the old harness which tugged them through the mud of Virginia, so that even the shrewdest rebel authorities passed it over. With these funds they were enabled to travel, on reaching a land of law and freedom.

The lady in question had taken her passage from Chicago to Dunleith, on the Galena road, and when about midway on her passage, she fell in with a gentleman from Winona who knew her husband, and informed her that instead of now being in Minnesota he was a Union soldier, wounded and sick in Camp Denison, Ohio. He enlisted last summer and was wounded at the battle of Richmond, Kentucky. This gentleman had just come from Camp Denison with an invalid son, a late companion in arms with the brave and loyal North Carolinian.

Not forty-eight hours before he had received messages to transmit to this very lady, with specific name and address, in case the husband should die before the war is over.

On this remarkable identification, the lady, with her child, stopped at Rockford, made herself properly known, and a few friends had the pleasure of furnishing her with funds to return to Camp Denison.

This case illustrates the painful vicissitudes through which many of our southern friends of the Union are passing at this very hour. Families are separated by force and remorselessly robbed, and yet endure all this with joy if they can escape with their lives from the wicked oligarchy of the slaveocrats.

LEARNING TO SKATE.—Don't imagine, for an instant, girls, that learning to skate is the least bit calculated to inspire you with pleasing emotions. Far from it. I will tell you how it will be. You will say to John Henry:

"How I should like to know how to skate."

John Henry will say:

"Certainly, my love; of course."

The next time he comes he will bring you a pair of 'Smith's best.'

He will say:

"To-morrow evening, darling, at half-past five."

To-morrow evening you will get your skates on about half-past six, with a strong determination to show John Henry what a graceful little fairy you are "on ice." He leads you from terra firma to terra icea, which you at once discover to be a different kind of "terra," altogether. You bow to John Henry, and lift your right foot which causes you to bow seventeen different ways at once. John Henry tells you to do so, and immediately some one falls. You look around to see who it is, and the thought strikes you perhaps it is myself. You are picked up, and fall down eleven times without stopping.

Your skate is loose. Of course it is or you could strike. John Henry loosens and tightens your straps in the usual way. You strike out with hands and feet, with energy and enthusiasm. The former you plunge into John Henry's countenance, and with the latter you succeed in laying him out alongside of yourself. You rise, and he rises partially up, and you throw yourself into his bread basket in a very inhuman manner. You hoarsely whisper:

"John Henry, I shall faint if you push me down again."

He helps you up, and you knock him down five times without stopping. At last you let him stand. He persuades you to release him, while he wipes the sweat from his noble brow. You nobly grant the boon and after superhuman exertions to maintain the perpendicular, you quietly "settle" slantindicularly into John Henry's coat sleeve. A look of despair says as plainly as look can:

"John Henry, why do you push and throw me down and about in this disagreeable way?"

He looks at his watch.

"Is it possible! Eight o'clock, and your mother said you must be at home at nine."

Your prayers have been answered, and it is he that wants to go home, and not you. You go home home, and if not very pious, you think a few very mild bad words about skating in general, and learning to skate in particular.

Four days after, when you are just able to walk around the house without limping—if you are reckless of life or limb—regardless of sprained ankles—or married to a feller what your pa likes and you don't—you will go again and learn to skate. It's ten to one, though, that you never try it a second time. So much "on ice."

THE GOLD-GAMBLERS IN NEW YORK.—The New York Herald is very fierce on the gold speculators of Wall street. The Herald says the demand for gold is almost wholly fictitious, and observes: "Even in Wall street, the gold is never delivered, and never wanted. A certificate that so much gold is deposited in such a place, is transferred from the seller to the buyer, who disposes of it again at an advance, if he can. If all the gold purchased in Wall street in a week was carted from broker to broker at the close of each day's sales, all the drays in the city would be in requisition. More than this; men sell gold who never really own a dollar of it to men who never truly possess the specie they have bought. A broker's promise to deliver so much gold at such a time, is saleable, and the broker runs his chances of being able to buy the gold before the time appointed, at a less price than that at which he sold it. At the date agreed upon he sometimes produces the certificate of deposit for the gold, but, generally, he only pays the difference between the premium rates on the day he sold and the day he delivers. Consequently, a man who has a few thousand dollars to pay these 'differences' can buy and sell millions of dollars' worth of gold. The dealings in gold are done in paper, therefore—the paper of banks, and bankers and brokers. The dealings of the people are in the paper of the United States government, which will endure when Wall street is but a memory. The paper of Wall street is secured by the personal and real property—often amounting to exactly nothing—of the speculators. The paper of the government is secured by all the national property, and by the integrity and honor of the country itself. The people are the indorsers of the notes of the government."

Fort McAllister Taken.

We have the gratifying intelligence that Fort McAllistor, near Savannah, has been taken by our iron clads.

Charleston to be Attacked.

Dispatches from Hilton Head announce that the next steamer going north will bring an account of an attack upon Charleston, which has probably taken place before this time.

The Vicksburg Rumor.

The government at Washington has no account of a general engagement at Vicksburg, and the rumors of a bloody battle and repulse are doubtless untrue.

The Emancipation Proclamation.

It is frequently said that the President's proclamation is a failure—that it has done more harm than good. This, we believe, is a great mistake. It was not until the President had fully committed the government to the policy of emancipation that the people of England took position in our favor. We now hear of immense public meetings in that country, all taking enthusiastic ground for the north. In the speeches and resolutions at these gatherings of working men, frequent allusion is made to the proclamation, and this appears to be the key note of these popular demonstrations. With such unmistakeable evidences of public opinion, the government of that country will not dare to recognize the rebel confederacy, whose corner stone is slavery. The proclamation has prevented intervention on the part of England, and we are not without hope of its influence in our favor on the continent, when the people shall understand it.

It was predicted that the proclamation would incite the slaves to insurrection and indiscriminate massacre. Two months have now elapsed and no such result has followed. The slaves are patient, biding their time, waiting, as they say, "for Masser Lincoln." In regard to faith and patience these poor slaves set an example far above their masters.

The enemies of emancipation also asserted that the southern people would become exasperated if the proclamation should be issued, but we have the testimony of every day's report that the rebels are no more determined now than before, and the Nashville Union denies positively that any southern Union men have become rebels in consequence of it. "Show us," says the Union, "one Union man who has faltered in his loyalty in consequence of the emancipation proclamation. We have heard a good deal of such stuff, and demand the proof. It is not true; not one word of it. On the contrary, it is an atrocious calumny against a body of men who are not so depraved as to prefer property to country. The very warmest advocates of the emancipation proclamation are large slave-owners of this state and Alabama; and the most radical letter we have yet seen on this subject, we received a short time ago, from a large slaveholder of Kentucky."

The emancipation proclamation is working in Europe; among the slaves; and in the hearts of the people of this country, north and south. It will bear fruit, and that very soon, for the regeneration of our country and the promotion of an enduring peace.

COPPER-BOTTOMS.—The gallant Gen. Kimball, of Indiana, dubs the "peace democracy" with the name of "Copper bottoms." His idea doubtless is that they must have some protection to enable them to endure with such abjectness the kicks so liberally bestowed upon them by their southern masters.

SOMETHING THAT WILL STICK.—The order of General Rosecrans, forbidding the circulation of the Chicago Times and Cincinnati Enquirer in the army under his command, is a plaster that will stick.—There is no pliable General Grant to overrule him.

FAIR HIT.—A sensible man writes: "The newspapers quote regularly the price of gold in Wall street, and give accounts of the fluctuations in the gold market. Why do they not also quote the price of second-hand clothing in Chatham street? The two trades are in the same hands, and I cant see why your journalists make much of one and say nothing of the other."

NEW ARMY DISEASE.—Mrs. Worcester, wife of Hon. S. T. Worcester, of the Huron district, a lady whose active charities in the Washington hospitals have conferred many blessings on Ohio soldiers, writes to a friend in Toledo that "a new disease has lately been brought up from the Potomac army. It is called dry gangrene. The feet seem to decay, and if not taken quite early, death ensues. It is supposed the disease comes from keeping the boots on week after week, as the soldiers are very apt to do, when they have only shelter tents and no fires.—Cleveland Herald.

Col. Ellet, commander of the gunboat Queen of the West, is but 19 years of age.

Tom Thumb and his wife are at their home in Bridgeport, Ct.

THE FEDERAL AND CONFEDERATE ARMIES CONTRASTED.—In the army of the North there is no doubt a formidable element of mere mercenaries, chiefly Germans and Irish. But the bulk of that army consists of American citizens, who, when the war is over, will return to the industrial pursuits from which they have been reluctantly taken. There is nothing to prevent even the Germans and Irish from taking to the labor, which was, of course, their original destination as emigrants—labor being in the North the ordinary state of man, and universally held in honor. The North is so wealthy that, in spite of the vast drain of the war, its government will not want the means of paying the troops their arrears, and getting them disbanded. In case of need the citizen soldiers are numerous enough to keep the rest under control. And there is no military chief of any mark on that side who can be suspected of the slightest tendency to become a buccaneer. In the South, on the contrary, directly the war is over, a most formidable question will arise between the wealthy planters and the army which has fought and won for their interests, and which we may be pretty sure is not so much animated by disinterested patriotism as to lay down its arms without reward. A great mass of these men will not only have no industrial pursuits, but no settled homes to which they can return. They will be such an army of "free companions," ready armed and disciplined for marauding on the grand scale as the world never beheld. The South, poor and indebted at the best of times, will scarcely be able to furnish their arrears of pay. And we know what a great army of mercenaries is when arrears of its pay are withheld. The planting community will at once have to find employment for the demon giant which it has evoked; and that employment will be some buccaneering enterprise against the neighboring territories. The last hope of forbearance which we might have had as the customers of the South will be destroyed by the breaking up of the cotton trade, especially if we should have made arrangements permanently to receive our cotton from other producers. Finally, unless I am much deceived as to Beauregard's character, he is just the man to lead any raid that might promise him wealth and fame.—Letter in London Daily News.

The contrast between the Northern and Southern armies would have appeared still greater to the writer of the above, if he had known that there are few or no foreign mercenaries in our Union army. Our German and Irish citizens who have volunteered to fight for their adopted country have done so from as patriotic motives as any others. Making this correction, the view put forth by the writer, of the probable condition of the South, if it shall have achieved its independence, is strikingly correct. What would Jeff. Davis do with his horde of poor white soldiers who have no homes or property to attract them to peaceful pursuits, if peace should be declared to-morrow on the basis of independence? Indeed, the question is not very different, so far as we are concerned, if we "crush the rebellion." These imbruted, ignorant, desperate brigands, who compose the rebel army, and have "tasted blood," would then be on our hands. What shall we do with them? We see no other alternative than that our armies must remain in the South in sufficient force to keep the peace, while free schools, a free press and a free church shall civilize them. How this is to be done under a continuance of state governments in the rebellious districts is not easily foreseen. On account of the difficulties of this nature we have been in favor of declaring the so-called seceded states territories, and governing them as such, until order can be restored. In no other way can the power of the nation be used to the desired end so well as through territorial governments, supported by the military power, and to this policy we must come at last.

Legislative Summary.

TUESDAY, March 3.

SENATE.—The senate met at 7½ o'clock last evening, but adjourned without transacting any business.

This morning the joint resolution to amend section 21, of article IV of the constitution, so as to change the pay of members of the legislature to an annual salary of $300 and mileage, was referred to a select committee consisting of Senators Pratt, Hamilton and Vilas, Senator Pratt having moved the reference, and saying that he wished so to amend the resolution as to exclude any appropriations for postage stamps and newspapers. Senator Hicks introduced a bill to prescribe and limit the fees of registers of deeds in certain cases. Senator Kelsey introduced a bill rescinding the printing contract of Carpenter & Hyer, and providing for procuring the public printing temporarily, till the commissioners should have sufficient time for advertising the re-letting of the contract. The most important bill introduced was one by Senator Wilson, providing for an amendment to the state constitution, incorporating into that instrument, the provisions of the existing homestead laws, to take effect retrospectively, and providing that after the 1st of January, 1864, a homestead used for agricultural purposes shall be exempt to the amount of 160 acres; the whole amendment to go into effect only after having passed this and the next succeeding legislature, and having received a majority vote of the people.

The Assembly resolution providing for an amendment to the constitution, providing for biennial sessions of the legislature, was referred to a select committee.

ASSEMBLY.—The House met last evening, but owing to the non-arrival of the eastern train, there was no quorum present.

This morning, the speaker announced that the state printers declined doing any more work under their contract, and therefore the journal of yesterday was not printed. Petitions to repeal the dog law and prohibit negroes from entering the state were presented. Mr. Sharpstein presented the old claim of Carpenter & Hyer, which was referred to a select committee, consisting of Sharpstein, Y. Ashley, and Davis.

Resolutions were adopted recommending the promotion of Col. Starkweather, of the 1st Wisconsin, to a brigadier generalship; to meet hereafter at 9½ A. M., except that on Saturday, the House will meet at 8½ and adjourn over till 7 P. M., of the following Monday; and to receive no new business after the 21st, and to adjourn sine die on the 30th ult. A number of bills mostly of a local character, were introduced.

Mr. Vivian, from the committee on state affairs, reported adversely to Mr. Hyer's memorial, which asserted that the present revenue laws tax the west unjustly, and for the benefit of eastern manufacturers; also against ceding Douglas county to Minnesota, taking the ground that it would be much more appropriate to ask Minnesota and Michigan to cede to us the portions of their territory bordering on Lake Superior.—Denster, of the Sea Bote, promised to bring in a minority report in favor of Hyer's memorial.

The resolutions of the Illinois Legislature to send state delegates to confer with the government of Canada and Great Britain, regard to facilitating the shipping of western products by the St. Lawrence river to the ocean, were received from the governor and read.

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 2.

The house passed the senate bill to indemnify the President for the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

The senate was occupied mostly on bills of no public interest.

The President to-day approved of the conscription bill as it passed the senate.

Gen. Burnside arrived in town to-day, and visited the President at the capitol.

Mr. Boutwell, commissioner of internal revenue, having been elected to the next congress from Massachusetts, will resign his present position on the 4th of March, the legal existence of the thirty-eighth congress commencing on that day, but will continue to perform the duties until his successor is appointed, which will not be done at present.

The first Presidential opening levee took place to-night at the executive mansion. There was an immense crowd long before the doors were opened, and hundreds were compelled to stand in the carriage way, between long files of soldiers, who, singular to say, supplanted the police, and preserved order with the bayonet. Among the procession of carriages were several ambulances filled with officers from camps at a distance, which gave the scene a mournful aspect at times. Those who got inside shook hands with the President, and then retired, after being presented to Mrs. Lincoln. There was a very small sprinkling of the fashionable element present.

It is announced here that the Secretary of the treasury has decided to issue no more twenty-five or fifty cent postal currency bills, in consequence of numerous counterfeits.

The following call for a ship canal convention at Chicago, in June next, has been signed by nearly ninety senators and representatives:

"Regarding the enlargement of the canals between the valley of the Mississippi and the Atlantic of great national, commercial and military importance, and as tending to promote the development, prosperity and unity of our whole country, we invite a meeting of all those interested in the subject, in Chicago, on the first Monday in June next.

"We especially ask the co-operation and aid of the boards of trade, chambers of commerce, agricultural societies, and business associations of the country."

The appropriation for the military academy, the invalid pension, consul and diplomatic, post office, army deficiency and fortification bills which have been passed by congress and approved by the President amount to $868,237,122.68. The naval legislative bills passed, but not yet approved, amount to about eight millions. The civil or miscellaneous bill is still pending.

The tax law is amended by the senate so as to impose two per cent. on water crafts hereafter to be built. None on ready-made clothing, but three per cent. on custom work. The collecting compensation is cut down from ten to five thousand dollars, exclusive of expenses.

NEW YORK, March 2.

Advices from Guatemala state that the state has declared war against San Salvador. President Carrera had marched with 2,000 to 6,000 men.

DES MOINES, March 2.

United States Marshal Hoxie and his deputies to-day commenced a systematized arrest of deserters from the army through out all parts of the state.

NEW YORK, March 2.

Mayor Opdyke to-day vetoed the resolutions of the common council to give Fitz John Porter a public reception.

WASHINGTON, March 2.

HOUSE.—The House passed the Senate bill granting lands to Wisconsin and Michigan for military purposes.

The House passed the Senate bill authorizing the paymaster general to take immediate measures for the payment of the sick and wounded in the convalescent camps and hospitals within sixty days.

The Senate bill to organize a signal corps, after amendments, was passed.

Mr. Porter, from the committee of conference, made a report on the disagreeing votes on the bill amendatory of the act establishing the court of claims, which was adopted. The bill, as now amended and passed, provides for two additional judges, and retains the present jurisdiction of the court.

The House passed the Senate bill disapproving certain acts of the Nevada territorial legislature, touching the rights of foreign mining corporations within the territory.

EVENING SESSION.—Mr. Dawes, from the committee on elections, reported a bill authorizing the acting governors of Tennessee and Louisiana to issue writs of election for representatives in congress, according to the laws of those states.

The bill authorizing the appointment of an assistant treasurer of the United States passed.

The Senate bill to establish the gague of the Pacific railroad and its branches at four feet eight and a half inches passed.

The house passed the following senate bills: One providing that the supreme court of the United States shall hereafter consist of one chief justice, and nine associate justices, one of whom shall hold court in the new circuit of California and Oregon; one granting alternate sections of land to Kansas, for railroad and telegraph purposes; one granting the right of preemption to settlers on the Soscal Rancho, California; one giving to soldiers discharged in consequence of wounds or sickness the same bounty as if they had served two years; one providing for the removal of certain bands of Sioux Indians from Kansas; one merging the two branches of army engineers; one to facilitate the taking of testimony to be used in foreign countres for legal purposes.

The house passed the senate joint resolution of thanks to General Rosecrans and his officers and men.

Mr. Sheffield reported a bill from the committee on commerce in relation to the revenue, and to punish frauds. Passed.

Mr. Sedgwick reported, from the naval committee, the senate bill authorizing the President to issue letters of marque and reprisal. Passed.

The senate resolution authorizing the committee on the conduct of the war to continue in session thirty days after the adjournment of congress, to complete their examination of important witnesses, was adopted.

The bill locating a branch mint at Carson city, Nevada, was passed.

Mr. Morrill, of Vermont, from the committee on ways and means, reported a bill, which passed, in relation to the revenue, and reducing the duty on paper from 35 to 20 per cent.

At 11:15 the house adjourned.

CINCINNATI, March 2.

Gen. Lytle arrived here to-day from Murfreesboro, and reports heavy rains and mud knee-deep. No movement can be made at present.

The enemy are fortified at Tullahoma and Dechard. There is no doubt that they have been heavily reinforced.

The Buell court of inquiry still continues, and may not adjourn for a month yet. Gens. Crittenden, Lytle and many others are yet to be examined.

NEW YORK, March 2.

A Murfreesboro letter says: "General Rosecrans has issued an order prohibiting the Cincinnati Enquirer and the Chicago Times from circulating in the army of the Cumberland."

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 3.

There still are rumors of the invasion by rebels from Tennessee, but there is no dependence to be placed in them. It is impossible for infantry to advance at present. The mud is so deep that they could not make a mile a day. Rebel cavalry dashes may be practicable, but even these are not likely to trouble us much, so long as the roads are in the present condition.

Many of the sick and wounded in the hospitals are recovering and returning to their regiments.

The hospitals are still well filled.

There is nothing new to day from Nashville or Murfreesboro. All accounts agree that the success of the federal expedition on the Bradyville road was a brilliant affair.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, March 3.

A ridiculous report is current here that our forces at Vicksburg have been defeated with a loss of 20,000, of whom 7,000 were drowned. No credence is given to this report.

FORT MONROE, March 2.

The Petersburg Republican of the 1st says a great battle has been fought at Vicksburg, with great losses on both sides, without any decided success.

NASHVILLE, March 3.

The rebels under Van Dorn advanced towards, Franklin, yesterday, 2,000 strong with artillery. After maneuvering a while, hoping to draw our men into ambsh, they returned. We captured two of Van Dorn's command. Van Dorn's headquarters are at Spring Hill, 13 miles south of Franklin. No fears are entertained for the safety of the place. The federal forces, by order of General Mitchell, captured Felix Young and Wm. B. Scroggs, two notorious guerrillas, who have murdered many Union soldiers in Sumter county. They, with two others, have been ordered to close confinement and heavily ironed. Seven prisoners arrived from the front last night.

Washington specials.—The President has received dispatches announcing the capture of Fort McAllister, at the mouth of the Ogeechie river, near Savannah, by our iron clads.

Provision for the organization of African troops was stricken from the engineer bill before it passed the Senate.

Important developments, says the Herald's dispatch, in regard to frauds in the interior department are promised soon after the adjournment of congress.

NEW YORK, March 4.

A Hilton Head letter of the 27th of February says: Troops are under orders to embark, and the next steamer will probably bring intelligence of an attack on Charleston. Gen. Stevenson has been restored to his command.

WASHINGTON, March 3.

A report current here last week of a severe engagement and repulse at Vicksburg, it is ascertained, has been revived in distant cities. Government is not even aware that there has been a general engagement in that quarter.

HOUSE.—The house has passed a bill authorizing the secretary of the treasury to appoint special agents to collect abandoned property in insurrectionary states and sell it at auction. The house also passed the senate's bill regulating prize cases.

Mr. Pendleton offered a resolution tendering the thanks of the house to speaker Grow, adopted unanimously.

Mr. White moved a suspension of the rules in order to consider the bill to aid Missouri in the abolishment of slavery, the roll call is just completed, but the result was not announced, when Mr. Kerrigan rose and made some remarks, with violent gesticulations.

Mr. Colfax, speaker protem, endeavored to stop him and finally ordered the sergeant at arms to take him into custody.

Mr. Kerrigan again essayed to speak, quiet was partially restored and the result of the vote announced—62 against 57, not two thirds, and the rules were not suspended.

Mr. Stevens introduced a resolution providing that pay and mileage due to the present members of this house be paid to their successors.

The miscellaneous appropriation bill was returned from the senate with amendments.

Mr. Stevens moved the house non-concur, and asked for a committee of conference.

The house took a recess until 3 o'clock to afford the committee time to act upon them.

In the senate, Mr. Trumbull moved to postpone the Colorado bill and take up the bill providing for the election of representatives from Tennessee and Louisana. Rejected.

Mr. Fessenden, from the finance committee, reported back the miscellaneous appropriation bill which was taken up. Several amendments of the finance committee were adopted. The committee moved to strike out the provision for the third milage which was lost. A great variety of amendments were acted upon, and at one o'clock the bill passed.

The senate resumed the consideration of the Colorado bill, which was passed.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, March 4.

The Herald's money article says it is believed the effect of the tax on the dealings in gold, and the policy of the secretary of the treasury will, for the present, tend to check speculation, and drive speculators to a less expansive field. Both houses passed the amendment to the tax bill, rendering absolutely void all loans over par on gold.

The following dispatch appears in the Springfield (Mass.) Republican, of the 3d:

Beaufort, S. C., Feb. 22d.—We are daily expecting to march, I suspect, towards Savannah, and that way to Charleston, as we are at present trying to drive the rebels from their earthworks with gunboats. Yesterday the 47th New York, with the assistance of the gunboats, took Fort McAllister and about one and a half miles of rifle-pits—47 lost, 115 wounded.

WASHINGTON, March 4.

In the senate, at two o'clock this morning, the bill to admit Nebraska was taken up; at 2:30 went into executive session; at 3:15 took a recess till 10.

Mr. Wilson reported back the bill to construct a canal from the Mississippi to Lake Michigan.

Mr. Trumbull moved to take up the bill providing for the election of congressmen in Tennessee.

Mr. Carlisle called for the yeas and nays. Agreed to; 28 to 7.

Mr. Fessenden, from the committee on conference on the miscellaneous appropriation bill reported. The report was concurred in, and the bill passed.

Mr. Davis moved the postponement of the bill providing for an election of congressmen in Tennessee and Louisiana. He said he meant to defeat the bill by every means in his power.

HOUSE.—Mr. Washburne moved to suspend the rules, for the consideration of the bills for the admission of Nevada and Colorado as states. Negatived—66 yeas and 77 nays, and the motion was lost.

The report of the conference committee on the miscellaneous appropriation bill was adopted.

The house, by a vote of 97 against 45, concurred in the report of the conference committee on the disagreeing vote of the two houses on the bill to indemnify the President and others for the suspending of the writ of habeas corpus.

A Lady from North Carolina Arrives at Rockford, Ill.

From the Rockford Register.

A most respectable and intelligent lady from the interior of North Carolina spent a day in our city last week, under the following circumstances:

Her husband, a Union man, left his home at the begining of the war, and went to Minnesota. She last heard from him at Winona. Having an only child three years old, and not wishing longer to remain in the southern confederacy, the wife, in company with an aged family also wishing to come North, started on the first Monday in January. They traveled in a lumber wagon, drawn by rickety old horses, from Jamestown to Raleigh and from Raleigh to Richmond.

At Richmond they were arrested and detained seven days. They were examined with the greatest rigor, and deprived of everything valuable upon their persons or in their wardrobe. The lady in question was not only robbed of her money by southern officers, under the orders of Jeff. Davis, but of her watch, a precious keepsake, of several pieces of silver plate, inherited from a deceased mother, and of her most valuable dresses. These confederate robbers also took from her the likenesses of her husband and friends, and even letters from a southern Masonic Lodge, identifying her as the wife of a Mason.

When they had extorted all the plunder they could, the rebel authorities allowed the forlorn party to proceed to the Rappahannock, where they crossed within our lines. At Aquia Creek they parted with their team and took the boat for Washington, whence they proceeded westward.—Fortunately they had been able to conceal a little gold and silver in the old harness which tugged them through the mud of Virginia, so that even the shrewdest rebel authorities passed it over. With these funds they were enabled to travel, on reaching a land of law and freedom.

The lady in question had taken her passage from Chicago to Dunleith, on the Galena road, and when about midway on her passage, she fell in with a gentleman from Wisconsin who knew her husband, and informed her that instead of now being in Minnesota he was a Union soldier, wounded and sick in Camp Denison, Ohio. He enlisted last summer and was wounded at the battle of Richmond, Kentucky. This gentleman had just come from Camp Denison with an invalid son, a late companion in arms with the brave and loyal North Carolinian.

Not forty-eight hours before he had received messages to transmit to this very lady, with specific name and address, in case the husband should die before the war is over.

On this remarkable identification, the lady, with her child, stopped at Rockford, made herself properly known, and a few friends had the pleasure of furnishing her with funds to return to Camp Denison.

This case illustrates the painful vicissitudes through which many of our southern friends of the Union are passing at this very hour. Families are separated by force and remorselessly robbed, and yet endure all this with joy if they can escape with their lives from the wicked oligarchy of the slaveocrats.

LEARNING TO SKATE.—Don't imagine, for an instant, girls, that learning to skate is the least bit calculated to inspire you with pleasing emotions. Far from it. I will tell you how it will be. You will say to John Henry:

"How I should like to know how to skate."

John Henry will say:

"Certainly, my love; of course."

The next time he comes he will bring you a pair of 'Smith's best.'

He will say:

"To-morrow evening, darling, at half-past five."

To-morrow evening you will get your skates on about half-past six, with a strong determination to show John Henry what a graceful little fairy you are "on ice." He leads you from terra firma to terra icea, which you at once discover to be a different kind of "terra," altogether. You bow to John Henry, and lift your right foot which causes you to bow seventeen different ways at once. John Henry tells you to do so, and immediately some one falls. You look around to see who it is, and the thought strikes you perhaps it is myself. You are picked up, and fall down eleven times without stopping.

Your skate is loose. Of course it is or you could strike. John Henry loosens and tightens your straps in the usual way. You strike out with hands and feet, with energy and enthusiasm. The former you plunge into John Henry's countenance, and with the latter you succeed in laying him out alongside of yourself. You rise, and he rises partially up, and you throw yourself into his bread basket in a very inhuman manner. You hoarsely whisper:

"John Henry, I shall faint if you push me down again."

He helps you up, and you knock him down five times without stopping. At last you let him stand. He persuades you to release him, while he wipes the sweat from his noble brow. You nobly grant the boon and after superhuman exertions to maintain the perpendicular, you quietly "settle" slantindicularly into John Henry's coat sleeve. A look of despair says as plainly as look can:

"John Henry, why do you push and throw me down and about in this disagreeable way?"

He looks at his watch.

"Is it possible! Eight o'clock, and your mother said you must be at home at nine."

Your prayers have been answered, and it is he that wants to go home, and not you. You go home home, and if not very pious, you think a few very mild bad words about skating in general, and learning to skate in particular.

Four days after, when you are just able to walk around the house without limping—if you are reckless of life or limb—regardless of sprained ankles—or married to a feller what your pa likes and you don't—you will go again and learn to skate. It's ten to one, though, that you never try it a second time. So much "on ice."

THE GOLD-GAMBLERS IN NEW YORK.—The New York Herald is very fierce on the gold speculators of Wall street. The Herald says the demand for gold is almost wholly fictitious, and observes: "Even in Wall street, the gold is never delivered, and never wanted. A certificate that so much gold is deposited in such a place, is transferred from the seller to the buyer, who disposes of it again at an advance, if he can. If all the gold purchased in Wall street in a week was carted from broker to broker at the close of each day's sales, all the drays in the city would be in requisition. More than this; men sell gold who never really own a dollar of it to men who never truly possess the specie they have bought. A broker's promise to deliver so much gold at such a time, is saleable, and the broker runs his chances of being able to buy the gold before the time appointed, at a less price than that at which he sold it. At the date agreed upon he sometimes produces the certificate of deposit for the gold, but, generally, he only pays the difference between the premium rates on the day he sold and the day he delivers. Consequently, a man who has a few thousand dollars to pay these 'differences' can buy and sell millions of dollars' worth of gold. The dealings in gold are done in paper, therefore—the paper of banks, and bankers and brokers. The dealings of the people are in the paper of the United States government, which will endure when Wall street is but a memory. The paper of Wall street is secured by the personal and real property—often amounting to exactly nothing—of the speculators. The paper of the government is secured by all the national property, and by the integrity and honor of the country itself. The people are the indorsers of the notes of the government."

Milton Anti-Horse Thief Society.

The annual meeting of the Milton Anti-Horse Thief Society will be held at the Good Templars' Hall, in the town of Milton, on the 12th day of March inst., for the election of officers and the transaction of such other business as may be deemed expedient. P. MARQUART, Milton, March 4th, 1863. Secretary.

LAST DAY POSITIVELY IN JANESVILLE.—Miss Marsh and Dollie Dutton, the Queen of the Fairies, give their last concert and levee at Lappin's Hall this evening. Their entertainments have pleased large numbers here and a large audience will doubtless be present this evening. Dollie is very small and pretty, and Miss Marsh has a very powerful voice and has the most perfect control over it. The audience last evening received her pieces with universal applause.

The Ladies Hospital Relief Society will meet at their rooms in Jackman & Smith's block, on Thursday, March 5th, from 10 o'clock A. M. till 5 o'clock P. M.

MARIA F. CLARK, Secretary.

WOOD WANTED.—A load or two of good, dry wood at the rooms of the Ladies Hospital Relief Society. If ready cut and split it will be exceedingly acceptable. Any one donating wood will please leave it in charge of Mr. Henry Van Kirk, at Dearborn's bookstore. By order of Society.

Janesville, March 3d, 1863.

WANTED.—A woman who has had experience in taking care of children is wanted to travel and take charge of Dollie Dutton, the lady who has charge of her being sick and unable to travel longer. Apply at the Hyatt House this evening or early to-morrow morning. A. NORTON.

CHRIST CHURCH SCHOOL.—The winter quarter of this school closes this week, on Friday; the spring quarter begins on Wednesday, March 11th. Pupils are requested to be punctual in attendance. Terms and place of school as heretofore. Modern languages and drawing extra. For further particulars apply to Rev. H. W. Spalding, residence on Bluff street, near Mr. Pease.

MILITARY APPOINTMENT.—The governor has issued a commission to Rev. John S. Baldwin as chaplain, vice Rev. Mr. Beers, resigned.

REGULAR MEETING.—The regular meeting of Water Witch Co. No. 2, will be held to-morrow (Thursday) evening at 7 o'clock.

Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.

BROWN SHEETINGS AND SHIRTINGS.—The market has not been active with first hands, but outside lots have been moving to some extent, and prices on heavy and medium sheetings are 2c higher than they were last week, both with first and second hands. Commission houses began to sell heavy sheetings early in the week at 42½c, and continued to part with small lots at this price until Thursday morning, when they advanced to 45c. Jobbing prices are advanced to 42c, by the piece or single bale, and we believe no lots of standards can be found under this price to-day, although yesterday we knew of 100 bales being offered at 41½c, but think part of them were mediums sandwiched in with standards. Mediums are 44c. Heavy shirtings are quiet and unchanged at 35c, light 27½c, Agawam E 37½c.

BLEACHED SHEETINGS AND SHIRTINGS.—Most makes of bleached goods have been quite active, and some houses have made large sales at advanced prices. Good 4-4 shirtings range from 36½c to 42½c, though there are some goods below and some above this range. No good fine goods can be found below 36c, and although the very finest goods are found above 42½c, yet makes nearly or about as good can be obtained at the range we have given. Wamsutta are advanced to 47½c, and are jobbed at 47½. Lonsdale 4 4 are 33c, 7-8 are 33c, 3-4 are 26c. The preference among buyers is lately turning to the better class of goods rather than the lowest, from the fact that the lower grades are intrinsically dearer than the better grades. Makers and sellers both admit the same fact.

PRINTS.—The advance which we anticipated in our last began to be realized the day after our markets were written. By Tuesday of the present week there was a general advance of 1c per yard, and yesterday Sprague's light colors were advanced a second time. Up to yesterday the demand was active. To-day business has been less brisk, but stocks of light colors in good styles are scarce, and in some makes would sell freely if there were any to offer. Sprague's light colors are 26½c, with sales; medium and dark colors, 26c. Dark colors were 25½c yesterday, but were advanced to-day. Merrimack and Cocheco are sold out, to remain so until fall, at least. Claflin, Mellen & Co. bought the balance of Merrimacks, and Tefts, Griswold & Kellogg the balance of Cocheco. Richmond is sold out of stock, but is daily receiving, at 24c net, for fancies, and 25c, net, for pinks and purples. Allen, Dunnell, American and Manchester are 25c on time. Garner's Amoskeag are also 25c, and at this price are the cheapest goods in the market.

The elders of Rev. T. Starr King's society in San Francisco recently wrote him a note, saying that unless he abandoned a certain style of preaching the church would lose many of its most respectable members. He read it aloud, and said if any more such epistles were sent to him, the church would lose its most respectable minister.

BORROWING A KNOCKER.—"Why, you'd better knock the door down!—what do you want?" "Och my darling? don't let me wake any of your family; I'm just usin your knocker to wake the paple next door; I'm locked out d'ye see, and they've niver a knocker—rap! rap! rap!"

The dutch have a proverb which says: "Thefts never enrich, alms never impoverish, and prayers hinder no work."

"Represent me in my portrait," said a gentleman to his painter, "with a book in in my hand, and reading aloud. Paint my servant also, in a corner where he cannot be seen, but in such a manner that he may hear me when I call him."

TO SAVE BUTTER.—Make it so salt that nobody can eat it.

MARRIED.

At Clarence, February 26th, Mr. DAVID COLBY and Miss JULIA ANN, daughter of Mr. J. W. Martin all of Spring Grove, Green county, Wisconsin.

DIED.

At Glen Haven, New York, January 14th, 1863, I. M. BOOTH aged 23 years.

The deceased having been a student and an intimate friend of mine, I desire publicly to express my appreciation of his noble life, and in so doing, I am aware that death has a great influence on the sentiments of the living. It puts an end to all wrongs and weaknesses, and the world seem willing to forget what no longer perplexes them, and even our active enemies are soon forgiven when their misguided abilities have become inoperative in the grave. Sympathy too does much. Death leads us to heighten every excellence, cover every weakness and dwell only upon that which we loved most in them when living. The departed, however, was one of those rare beings who scarcely had an enemy. While the excellent qualities of his head and heart made him acceptable in any circle, his modest, retiring manner shielded him from the jealousies of the ambitious. As a student he was far above mediocrity. As a natural linguist he was unsurpassed by any in our institution. His aim was the ministry, towards which object he moved with great energy till called to that land where good intentions meet their reward. Nature gave him a heart of exquisite tenderness and added the endearing capacity of anticipating the wants of others before they were expressed. He took great delight in the Lord's house. When the pious met to pray he always joined them if it were possible. While the gay and thoughtless met in halls of mirth he retired to hold communion with God, and his glorious end showed how well it paid. Ye who have seen his companions in science read it and be blessed!

There is something touching in last times. The last look of loving eyes as the vessel spreads its white wings for flight, is solemn. The last view of the church upon the village green, where we used to pray, is sad. The last flight of the birds in autumn seeking a southern home has meaning in it. The withered rose, the fallen leaf, the garnered grain telling us of summer gone, all have a mournful message to the soul. The closing day, the week, the year call for deep reflection.

"When the dreams of life are fled
And its wasted lamps are dead,
Where immortal spirits reign
We may all soon meet again."

G. A. SMITH.

reach directly the affected parts and give almost instant relief. In BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, and CATARRH they are beneficial. OBTAIN only the genuine Brown's Bronchial Troches which have proved their efficacy by a test of many years. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS should use the Troches. Lyon's Kathairon.

This delightful article for preserving and beautifying the human hair is again put up by the original proprietor, and is now made with the same care, skill and attention, which first created its immense and unprecedented sales of over one million bottles annually. It is still sold at 25 cents in large bottles. Two million bottles can easily be sold in a year when it is again known that the Kathairon is not only the most delightful hair dressing in the world, but that it cleanses the scalp of scurf and dandruff, gives the hair a lively rich luxuriant growth, and prevents it from turning gray. These are considerations worth knowing. The Kathairon has been tested for over twelve years, and is warranted as described. Any lady who values a beautiful head of hair will use the Kathairon. It is finely perfumed, cheap and valuable. It is sold by all respectable dealers throughout the world.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, BY BUMP & GRAY, GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

Chicago Market.

OFFICE OF THE CHICAGO EVENING JOURNAL, TUESDAY, March 3—3 p. m.

The discussion on the subject of supplying the army before Vicksburg with vegetables, etc., and other matters pertaining to the good of the country, occupied the attention of the board of trade this morning and other business was in a great measure neglected in consequence.

The demand for wheat was less active, and confined almost exclusively to Nos 1 and 2 spring, with sales of the former at $1,25a1,27 and of the latter at $1,12a1,13; No 2 red sold to a limited extent at $1 28 and rejected spring at 92a93c. There was nothing of moment done in flour and the market was entirely nominal.

Corn ruled firm but not active at 52½a53c for mixed and 45a49½c for rejected. Oats were less active and easier, No 1 selling at 56a56½c. Rye was firmer with light sales at 82a83c for No 1 in store. Barley steady. Seeds quiet and without material change. Highwines dull and nominal.

There was scarcely anything done in provisions and transactions were confined to 100 barrels city packed mess pork at $14 00. Holders of lard were firm at 10¾ a11c. Live hogs steady and unchanged. Dressed hogs scarce and 10c higher, with sales at $4.55a5,00 to $4,60a5,60 for lots dividing on 200 pounds.

Milton, March 4th, 1863.

LAST DAY POSITIVELY IN JANESVILLE.—Miss Marsh and Dollie Dutton, the Queen of the Fairies, give their last concert and levee at Lappin's Hall this evening. Their entertainments have pleased large numbers here and a large audience will doubtless be present this evening. Dollie is very small and pretty, and Miss Marsh has a very powerful voice and has the most perfect control over it. The audience last evening received her pieces with universal applause.

The Ladies Hospital Relief Society will meet at their rooms in Jackman & Smith's block, on Thursday, March 5th, from 10 o'clock A. M. till 5 o'clock P. M.

Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.

BROWN SHEETINGS AND SHIRTINGS.—The market has not been active with first hands; but outside lots have been buying to some extent, and prices on heavy and medium sheetings are 2c higher than they were last week, both with first and second hands. Commission houses began to sell heavy sheetings early in the week at 42½c, and continued to part with small lots at this price until Thursday morning, when they advanced to 43c. Jobbing prices are advanced to 42c, by the piece or single bale, and we believe no lots of standards can be found under this price to-day, although yesterday we knew of 100 bales being offered at 41½c, but think part of them were mediums sandwiched in with standards. Mediums are 41c. Heavy shirtings are quiet and unchanged at 35c, light 27½c, Agawam E 37½c.

BLEACHED SHEETINGS AND SHIRTINGS.—Most makes of bleached goods have been quite active, and some houses have made large sales at advanced prices. Good 4-4 shirtings range from 36½c to 42½c, though there are some goods below and some above this range. No good fine goods can be found below 36c, and although the very finest goods are found above 42½c, yet makes nearly or about as good can be obtained at the range we have given. Wamsutta are advanced to 47½c, and are jobbed at 47½. Lonsdale 4-4 are 38c, 7-8 are 33c, 3-4 are 26c. The preferred among buyers is lately turning to the better class of goods rather than the lowest, from the fact that the lower grades are intrinsically dearer than the better grades. Makers and sellers both admit the same fact.

PRINTS.—The advance which we anticipated in our last began to be realized the day after our markets were written. By Tuesday of the present week there was a general advance of 1c per yard, and yesterday Sprague's light colors were advanced a second time. Up to yesterday the demand was active. To-day business has been less brisk, but stocks of light colors in good styles are scarce, and in some makes would sell freely if there were any to offer. Sprague's light colors are 26½c, with sales; medium and dark colors, 26c. Dark colors were 25½c yesterday, but were advanced to-day. Merrimack and Cocheco are sold out, to remain so until fall, at least. Claflin, Mellen & Co. bought the balance of Merrimacks, and Tefft, Griswold & Kellogg the balance of Cocheco. Richmond is sold out of stock, but is daily receiving, at 24c net, for fancies, and 25c, net, for pinks and purples. Allen, Dunnell, American and Manchester are 25c on time. Garner's Amoskeag are also 25c, and at this price are the cheapest goods in the market.

The elders of Rev. T. Starr King's society in San Francisco recently wrote him a note, saying that unless he abandoned a certain style of preaching the church would lose many of its most respectable members. He read it aloud, and said if any more such epistles were sent to him, the church would lose its most respectable minister.

BORROWING A KNOCKER.—"Why, you'd better knock the door down!"—what do you want? "Och my darling? don't let me wake any of your family; I'm just usin your knocker to wake the paple next door; I'm locked out d'ye see, and they've niver a knocker—rap! rap! rap!"

The dutch have a proverb which says: "Thefts never enrich, alms never impoverish, and prayers hinder no work."

"Represent me in my portrait," said a gentleman to his painter, "with a book in in my hand, and reading aloud. Paint my servant also, in a corner where he cannot be seen, but in such a manner that he may hear me when I call him."

TO SAVE BUTTER.—Make it so salt that nobody can eat it.

MARRIED.

At Clarence, February 26th, Mr. DAVID COLBY and Miss JULIA ANN, daughter of Mr. J. W. Martin all of Spring Grove, Green county, Wisconsin.

DIED.

At Glen Haven, New York, January 14th, 1863, I. M. BOOTH aged 23 years.

The deceased having been a student and an intimate friend of mine, I desire publicly to express my appreciation of his noble life, and in so doing, I am aware that death has a great influence on the sentiments of the living. It puts an end to all wrongs and weaknesses, and the world seem willing to forget what no longer perplexes them, and even our active enemies are soon forgiven when their misguided abilities have become inoperative in the grave. Sympathy too does much. Death leads us to heighten every excellence, cover every weakness and dwell only upon that which we loved most in them when living. The departed, however, was one of those rare beings who scarcely had an enemy. While the excellent qualities of his head and heart made him acceptable in any circle, his modest, retiring manner shield it him from the jealousies of the ambitious. As a student he was far above mediocrity. As a natural linguist he was unsurpassed by any in our institution. His aim was the ministry, towards which object he moved with great energy till called to that land where good intentions meet their reward. Nature gave him a heart of exquisite tenderness and added the endearing capacity of anticipating the wants of others before they were expressed. He took great delight in the Lord's house. When the pious met to pray he always joined them if it were possible. While the gay and thoughtless met in halls of mirth he retired to hold communion with God, and his glorious end showed how well it paid. Ye who have been his companions, in science read it and be blessed!

There is something touching in last times. The last look of loving eyes as the vessel spreads its white wings for flight, is solemn. The last view of the church upon the village green, where we used to pray, is sad. The last flight of the birds in autumn seeking a southern home has meaning in it. The withered rose, the fallen leaf, the gathered grain telling us of summer gone, all have a mournful message to the soul. The closing day, the week, the year call for deep reflection.

"When the dreams of life are fled
And its wasted lamps are dead,
Where immortal spirits reign
We may all soon meet again."

C. A. SMITH.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES reach directly the affected parts and give almost instant relief. In BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, and CATARRH they are beneficial. The good effects resulting from the use of the Troches, and their extended use, has caused them to be counterfeited. Be sure to guard against worthless imitations. Lyon's Kathairon.

This delightful article for preserving and beautifying the human hair is again put up by the original proprietor, and is now made with the same care, skill and attention, which first created its luxurious and unprecedented sales of over one million bottles annually. It is still sold at 25 cents in large bottles. Two million bottles can easily be sold in a year, when it is again known that the Kathairon is not only the most delightful hair dressing in the world, but that it cleanses the scalp of scurf and dandruff, gives the hair a lively rich luxuriant growth, and prevents it from turning gray. These are considerations worth knowing. The Kathairon has been tested for over twelve years, and is warranted as described. Any lady who values a beautiful head of hair will use the Kathairon It is finely perfumed, cheap and valuable. It is sold by all respectable dealers throughout the world.

Chicago Market.

OFFICE OF THE CHICAGO EVENING JOURNAL, TUESDAY, March 3—3 p. m.

The discussion on the subject of supplying the army before Vicksburg with vegetables, etc., and other matters pertaining to the good of the country, occupied the attention of the board of trade this morning and other business was in a great measure neglected in consequence.

The demand for wheat was less active, and confined almost exclusively to No. 1 and 2 spring, with sales of the former at 1,25a1,27 and of the latter at $1,12a1,13; No 2 red sold to a limited extent at $1.28 and rejected spring at 92a93c. There was nothing of moment done in flour and the market was entirely nominal.

Corn ruled firm but not active at 52½a53c for mixed and 53a56½c for rejected. Oats were less active and easier, No 1 selling at 52a56½c. Rye was firmer with light sales at 82a83c for No 1 in store. Barley steady. Seeds quiet and without material change. Highwines dull and nominal.

There was scarcely anything done in provisions and transactions were confined to 100 barrels city packed mess pork at $14 00. Holders of lard were firm at 10½; alle. Live hogs steady and unchanged. Dressed hogs scarce and 10c higher, with sales at $4,55@5,60 to $4,85a5,60 for lots dividing on 200 pounds.

COUNTY COURT OF ROCK COUNTY.

In the matter of the estate of John Doyle, deceased.

ON reading and filing the petition of Thomas Thorp, the administrator of the estate of said deceased, setting forth the amount of personal estate that has come to his hands and the disposition thereof, the amount of debts outstanding against said deceased and a description of all the real estate of which said deceased died seized and the condition and value of the respective portions thereof, and praying that license may be granted to him to sell so much of the said real estate as may be necessary to pay the debts of said deceased, the costs of administration and the expenses of the funeral and last sickness of said deceased; and it appearing by said petition that there is not sufficient personal estate in the hands of said administrator to pay said debts and said costs and expenses, and that it is necessary in order to pay the same to sell part of said real estate, it is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before this court at the office of the judge thereof in the city of Janesville, in said county, on the first Monday of February next, at ten o'clock A M, then and there to show cause why license should not be granted to said administrator to mortgage, lease or sell so much of said real estate as shall be necessary to pay said debts and expenses, and that a copy of this order shall be personally served on all persons interested in said estate residing in the said county at least fourteen days prior to said hearing, and shall be published four successive weeks prior to said day, in the Weekly Gazette and Free Press, a weekly paper published in said city. GREAT REDUCTION

—IN—

The Prices

—OF—

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $70.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the world for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.
